Change of Ownership Form.

Before completing this form, please know:

- This form may not be used for Qualified Accounts.
- Depending on your personal financial situation, a change of ownership of a life insurance or annuity contract may be a taxable event. It is highly recommended you consult with a tax and/or legal professional to consider potential tax and estate implications.
- The new Owner will be listed as the Payor of the policy unless instructed otherwise.
- For Annuity contracts:
 - If the new owner is a revocable trust or an irrevocable grantor trust, the annuitant must be the grantor of the trust to assure compliance with Section 72(s) of the Internal Revenue Code. For joint grantor trusts, both grantors must be annuitants, unless only one grantor's separate property is used to fund the annuity, in which case that grantor must be the annuitant.

Note: Check the appropriate box in the line above for the tax classification of the single-member owner. Do not check LLC if the LLC is classified as a single-member LLC that is a "disregarded entity", unless the owner of the LLC is another LLC that is not a "disregarded entity" for U.S. federal tax purposes. Otherwise, a single-member LLC that is disregarded from the owner should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner.

Check here if owner is an Exempt Payee (defined in Form W-9 instructions)

Exempt Payee Code:

Exemption from FATCA reporting code (if any):

As used below, the word "I" refers to the applicant who is the taxpayer on the account.

Under penalty of perjury, I, certify that:

1. The number shown in this document is my correct social security or taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because:
 - a. I am exempt from backup withholding, or
 - b. I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or
 - c. The IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to back up withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. Citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct; and
5. I have the right to make this change of ownership without the authorization, approval or permission of any court, person, firm or corporation.

Certification Instructions:

As used below, the word "You" refers to the application who is the taxpayer on the account.

Check this box if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to back up withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

If you are not a U.S. citizen or non-U.S. residing U.S. resident alien, you must submit the applicable IRS Form W-8 with this form to certify your foreign status and, if applicable, claim treaty benefits. If you are not a U.S. person, your signature below only applies to the provisions of this document other than the provisions contained in this Owner Tax certification section. Form W-9 and Form W-8 and their instructions are available upon request or on irs.gov.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
